Hagley Surgery

Important Information

Our whole computer system is to be overhauled week commencing 25th February 2013.

This is a massive project whereby all of our patient records and attachments are transferred over to a clinical system called EMISweb.

There is also a huge amount of non clinical data to be migrated.

It will take a few weeks for the doctors, nurses and clerical staff to familiarise themselves with the new system, its hardware and the necessary software.

It may mean that some services will be temporarily affected, in particular, on line transactions via EMISaccess

Please be patient, this will be very stressful for all concerned, we have training days booked (which will help) but nonetheless it will take time for everyone to feel confident with the new system.

THANK YOU

The Practice has a new website HagleySurgery.co.uk

Dear Editor

If readers would like to try something new in 2013, can I recommend volunteering at a local National Trust property, Dudmaston Hall? I joined the Dudmaston team as a room guide and children's activity helper two years ago, needing to fill the gap left after both my children moved away from home. I have experienced many benefits, meeting different people, making new friends, learning about Dudmaston's fascinating history and feeling a valued member of a great team, all helping to bring the Dudmaston story alive for visitors. Moreover, I enjoy spending time in such a beautiful place!

To find out more, call Dudmaston on 01746 780866 or email Dudmaston@nationaltrust.org.uk

HAGLEY PARISH COUNCIL

Hagley Business Association

We would like to thank all the shops and businesses of Hagley for the Christmas Event. We hope to work with the Association for the future good of the village.

Vacancy

We still have a vacancy on the council. If you are interested please come and observe a couple of meetings (details on the notice board and website) and have a chat with one of the clerks.

Council Meetings

All the council meetings are open to the public. Sometimes the council will go into private session when the public have to leave. To clarify this, it is not intended to hide anything, but under the standing orders of the parish council, this is to discuss matters of a confidential nature. If appropriate such matters will be openly discussed and minuted at a later date.

Planning

In November, the council looked at five applications. There were no objections to 12/0913 65 Worcester Road; 12/0894 40 Summervale Road and 12/089624 Long Close. The council objected to 12/0818 49 Park Road due to the possible effect on the neighbour and 12/0921 The Cottage, Wassell Grove as an inappropriate development in the green belt.

This council also strongly objects to the Cala proposals, the plan for 70 houses in Western ~ Road and the plans for new houses in Hoarstone.

The Cala Homes app was withdrawn from the December planning meeting by BDC following legal advice received from 'Number 5 Chambers' on behalf of Hagley and Clent Parish Councils. In summary "The purpose of this advice is to consider the lawfulness of a decision by the committee if it were to grant permission in line with the officer's recommendations."

Apologies for those many residents who turned up to the meeting only to be told the news. The Parish Council was initially working to a planning committee date in early January.

BDC's decision to include it in the December meeting meant that objections had to be submitted sooner than planned with some omissions. The final objections were subsequently submitted as soon as they were complete. This included the legal advice and was submitted as soon as it could have been.

We are waiting to hear the outcome with the next likely meeting date 7th January 2013.

CLENT PARISH COUNCIL

Clent Parish Council Meeting 19th November, in Clent Parish Hall

An Outline of Major issues.

All areas of the Parish were represented by a lively audience of around forty people.

Following Mrs. Nation's regrettable resignation from Chair and Council, Councillor Robb was elected Chairman. He paid tribute to his predecessor.

Plans for 70 houses at Streathern, Western Road.

The Council are opposing this development. We agreed a contingency fund of £5000, and will employ RCA Regeneration to professionally analyse and criticise the details of the plans as they come forward. A number of well-informed suggestions from the audience together with other appropriate arguments will form part of our opposition, which will be co-ordinated with Hagley Parish Council and Hagley Residents Action Group.

Grass/Hedge/Maintenance

Weather conditions and late fall have delayed cuts. These will be carried out as soon as practicable. The working party will then meet the contractor to discuss future needs.

Our Lengthsman and our Maintenance man are retiring. We resolved to interview for a joint role.

Cricket Club

Following negotiations with the Cricket Club it was agreed that the Council will carry public liability when the field is open during the off-season. The club will erect a low fence around its pavilion, and curtail its fenced enclosure at the steeply sloped end, thus enlarging the meadow zone.

Skateboard improvements

The Council resolved in principle to improve the skateboard facilities. The nature of the improvements will depend on the total likely cost. Further research will be undertaken.

HISTORICAL & FIELD SOCIETY

Not inappropriately for its November meeting, the Society welcomed back Graham Sutherland to talk about the Gunpowder Plot of 1605. The story of how Robert Catesby led a group of Catholics in a plot to assassinate the Protestant King James 1 and replace him with his daughter Princess Elizabeth is well known but Graham's presentation focused on the Midlands connections. The plot started in Catesby's home in Lapworth but the plotters were betrayed and Guy Fawkes arrested and tortured. The remaining plotters had taken supplies from Warwick Castle and gunpowder from Hewell Grange before taking shelter at Holbeche House. Here they managed to blow the roof off when a spark ignited the gunpowder they had been drying in front of the fire. The following day the house was surrounded by the Sheriff of Worcester and the plotters killed or captured. Graham presented the story in his usual absorbing style with modern and contemporary illustrations and left us with some interesting questions over whether Fawkes was set up (even if he did achieve lasting infamy).

November saw two fascinating walks around Chaddesley Corbett led by Sylvia Beardshaw (followed by a pub lunch) and an equally interesting visit to the Birmingham Museums Collection Centre.

Our next meeting in St Saviour's Hall is on 1st January, when your scribe will present "Return to 1963" as an introduction to the Society's Fiftieth Anniversary. Look out for details of further activities celebrating this milestone on our website www.hhfs.org.uk. Visitors are always welcome to our events.

"WILLIAM MORRIS, the MANDERS and WIGHTWICK MANOR."
- an illustrated talk by Helen Bratt- Wyton.

AFTERNOON W.I.

How did we get our Christmas traditions? Some we knew and some we didn't – Saint Nicholas (C4 Turkey) – Santa Claus – Father Christmas; the Christmas tree reached these shores before Prince Albert; turkey was preceded by boar, swan or goose – cooked in the baker's oven; and the King's or Queen's Christmas broadcast was set for 3.00 pm as the most convenient for all the peoples of the Empire. In November, Pat Boyd gave an interesting and hilarious talk about Christmas Past and Present finishing with two pieces of advice – never take a foreigner to a pantomime – and always go with at least one child, preferably more.

We also welcomed Zippy Nomad – a member of WIs in Devon and Yorkshire, who has visited 100 WIs and written about the experience of 'Celebrating Fellowship'. Travelling in her camper van, Zippy, her present challenge is to visit 30 WIs in 30 days!

We held two events raising money for Mary Stevens Hospice – a Fashion Show by Debut and a Table Top Sale, where we were pleased to be joined by the Evening WI and other village organisations.

The first meeting of 2013 is on Monday 14 January when we will hear about the History of Nursery Rhymes. On 11 February we have an In House Cookery Demonstration with a few members preparing and sharing their favourite recipes and tips.

We meet monthly on the second Monday at 2.00 in the Community Centre. Do come along – and bring a friend - you will be warmly welcomed.

Hagley Wives & Women's Fellowship

Our first meeting in 2013 will be a Quiz on January 8th. I am assured by Ann who will set the questions that it will be 'The Not as Hard as Last Year Quiz' I hope she is right. Our brains are dusty after Christmas!

Following this, on 22 January we welcome the return of Ed Shore who will talk about National Service; should it be Brought back? Ed always gives us a lively and interesting evening, so don't miss it.

We start at 8pm in St Saviour's Hall. Everyone is most welcome

THEATRE GROUP

Thank you to all those who came to see Jekyll and HyA happy New Year to you all! As we look back over the last year our Youth Section’s production of the musical Jekyll and Hyde (10-13

October 2012) was a great success being one of the most popular shows we have staged in recent years. This was a demanding production and has been recognised by the National Operatic and Dramatic Society (NODA) who’s regional representative reviewed the show and stated that all the cast could be ‘immensely proud of their terrific performance’ and that ‘the show will be remembered by all fortunate enough to have seen it’. Earlier in the year we staged, for the first time, a play written by one of our own members, David Knowlton, whose comedy thriller ‘The Social Circle’ (9 - 11 February 2012) received the accolade from NODA of ‘an entertaining and well-structured drama, superbly performed which kept the audience laughing and intrigued to the end’.

Our next production will be a revue of musicals and sketches with both the adult and youth sections taking part which will run from the 1-2 March, (but might include the Sunday 3rd as well). This will be along the lines of the show we staged two years ago ‘West End to Broadway.’ There will be more about this in next month’s issue. If you would like tickets for this show or feel you would like to take part in any aspect of theatre including lighting, props, stage management, front of house and/or acting and directing please phone 07907 457217 and leave a message.

Inspire a Generation?

Sound familiar? Well, there exists in Hagley an opportunity to inspire several generations!

3rd Hagley Brownie Unit will celebrate its fortieth anniversary this year and we need at least two additional leaders for the Unit. We have plenty of casual helpers-retired leaders, parents etc; however, what we really need is commitment to our weekly meetings and activities. Please read on!!

SO... If you are 18+ and like having fun, the outdoors, crafts, cookery etc and would like to help future generations to learn new skills, meet challenges and help their personal development, please get in touch. Perhaps you are one of our 'old Brownies' who has moved back into the area or perhaps by reading this you may know someone who might be interested. If you have been inspired by 2012 to find a volunteer opportunity this is really worthwhile. At present, Guiding is thriving in Hagley and we need to ensure that it continues to do so for our future generations of girls and young women.

Like to know more? Please contact Gill Quinlivan on 01562 886280 - we would love you to join us for an evening and talk things through in more detail. Our Unit motto is 'teamwork, determination and fun' - why not be part of it?

Gill Quinlivan

TREFOIL GUILD

Our Annual General Meeting was a very positive affair. The funds were quite healthy and ideas for next year's programme were soon finalised. Speaking of programmes, does everyone know that all the back copies of the Hagley Village News can be found in Hagley Library? They were bound until recently, when the cost became prohibitive, but they are still kept, you just have to ask the librarian. So, if we become short of inspiration in the future, we know where to look. Now, what were we doing in 1999?

For all that, this January we will meet at 42 Summervale Road to play board games. There is a mah-jong set just crying out to be used and this may be the occasion the seal is broken! We meet at 2.30pm on Thursday 10th. Please note that this is an afternoon meeting.

E.O.Gingell

CLUB REPORTS

EVENING W.I.

November was a dreary month weather wise but we did some interesting things. Several of us enjoyed a jewellery making day at Hartlebury and on the very last day of October a good number of us enjoyed the Annual Council meeting at Malvern with excellent speakers.

Adam Henson, from Countryfile, and the Chief Constable of West Mercia. We entered the competitions, without success, but it was still fun participating! We had a table at the Table Top sale organised by afternoon WI and sold all the cakes members had made.

We had an excellent speaker, Mrs. Jill Nicklin, whose subject was 'Costume and Culture in S.W. China'. Several of us were persuaded to model beautiful hand embroidered clothes made in the villages in that part of China.

We met for lunch on the last Friday of the month and by the time you read this Christmas will be in the past! Our best wishes for a Happy and Healthy New Year to all your readers and we would welcome anyone who would like to come and sample a meeting. Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of the month in the Free Church Hall at 7.30 pm. Contact Pauline on 882875 or Liz on 720219.

Liz Hathway

Stourbridge Speakers Club

"Hello all and I do sincerely hope you all had a very restful, peaceful and happy festive period.

Were you called upon at works parties to give an impromptu speech? It can and does happen with alarming regularity.

Maybe you have made it one of your New Year's Resolutions to come along and of course we would love to see you.

Or it could be that you have a starring role in some of these events in the next few months. Weddings, Christenings, job interviews, asking the one for their hand in marriage or just on a date. Quite frankly anything that is involved in giving a coherent and well thought out speech could be benefited by popping along.

So why not come along? You have nothing to lose but your fear.

Supermarket Fundraising Scheme – Vouchers or Gift Cards

We have embarked on a new scheme to help with our church finances, which is open to everyone who shops at the major supermarkets – Asda, M&S, Morrison's, Sainsbury's and Tesco. By using bulk purchasing power and acting together we can buy vouchers or cards at a discounted price which can then be sold to you at face value - thus raising valuable income to keep our churches open and running. You shop as usual but pay using the vouchers instead of your normal method of payment – you can still use your Club Card or Nectar Card as before. Vouchers or gift cards are available in various denominations and more information and order forms can be obtained from Iain Wright on 01527 836044 or Tony at the Parish Office on 01562 886363. Please do think about helping us by joining the scheme.

CLUB REPORTS

Hagley Free Church Mother and Toddler Group

We are a friendly group of young mums and their toddlers who meet every Wednesday, 10.00 - 11.30am, in school terms.

The children play happily with quality toys; mums meet and enjoy a relaxing time with friends.

Try us !! Phone 01562 883460 for more details.

In July of this year, Artrix invested a five figure sum in updating its cinema with the installation of a Digital Projection System.

Not only has this considerable investment improved the quality and range of films that the Arts Centre can screen now, but also one of the other benefits is that it enables us to show live relays of ballet, dance, drama and opera from other theatres.

On Thursday, January 17th, the first of these live relays is shown with a performance of Pinero's Victorian Farce " The Magistrate ", starring the Academy Award Nominee, John Lithgow, live from London's National Theatre.

When amiable magistrate Posket (John Lithgow) marries Agatha, little does he realise that she's dropped five years from her age - and her son's!! When her deception looks set to be revealed, it sparks a series of hilarious indignities and outrageous mishaps.

The performance starts at 7.00.p.m and tickets, at £12, are available from the Box Office on 01527-577330, or you can book online at www.artrix.co.uk

Hagley Catholic High School

We warmly welcomed Archbishop Bernard Longley to school in November to celebrate Mass, share lunch and a tour of the school.

Archbishop Bernard Longley studied at both Manchester and Oxford Universities. He was ordained a priest to serve the diocese of Arundel and Brighton, completing further studies at the English College in Rome. In 2009 Pope Benedict XVI appointed him Archbishop of Birmingham

While he was with us he launched the Virtual Chaplaincy website.

Each week Father Martin, our chaplain, will update the site with features to assist us in developing the courage and confidence to live our faith, including daily prayers and a Saint of the Week. Information about feast days and other liturgical celebrations will also be available.

We are delighted that several of last year's Y8 pupils, who entered the national School Bibles Project competition, have received prizes awarded for work of a high standard. Pupils were asked to imagine they were one of the characters featured within one of four specified Bible passages. They had to creatively write an eye-witness account, focusing upon emotions and descriptive writing.

Plans are in place for a trip to Poland in February 2013. A group of Y10&11 pupils will undertake pilgrimage to Poland, stay in central Krakow, visit the concentration camps at Auschwitz and have the chance to meet a Holocaust survivor, or relative.

The Languages Department is proposing a trip to Paris and Champagne in May 2013 for the Year 10 students studying French at GCSE.

ART CLUB

HAGLEY ART CLUB

At our meeting on Friday 11th January, our visiting artist is Rupert Cordeux who will be giving the demonstration 'Horses in Oils'.

Our Annual Exhibition during the weekend of 16-18 November was a successful event for the Club and was very well attended, many having come quite long distances to view our pictures and crafts.

The result of the voting by the public for the 'Best Liked Pictures' in the Exhibition is:

1st Picture 34 'Purple Calendulas' ..Artist: Hazel Gillard

2nd Picture 66 'Sleepy Head'Artist: Graham Madders

3rd Picture 36 'Heartland Point'.....Artist: Hazel Gillard

Congratulations to both these artists.

Looking ahead to 8th February, Sean Counley is coming to demonstrate and explain Digital Art to us.

Haybridge High School and Sixth Form

As I write this the school has celebrated Diwali and is now busy preparing for the Christmas Fayre, the Christmas Carol Concert and both students and staff are hunting for the most outrageous Christmas jumpers to wear in order to raise funds for charity on the last day of term. Year 7 students are about to set off for their trip to Cologne, to visit the Christmas market there and to practise their German skills with great enthusiasm. On 6th December we held our Winter Poetry and Music Evening, an informal event of poetry readings by students, staff and guests, including the established poet Philip Rush.

November was anti-Bullying month, and students from all Year Groups worked together to produce thought provoking assemblies to highlight this issue. A competition was held to design an anti-bullying poster or T shirt. We now have some super posters around school, and the winning T shirt design was made up into Fair Trade T shirts, worn by Year Ambassadors throughout the week as a visible reminder of the issues discussed in assembly. Congratulations to poster design winner Holly Garbett and T shirt design winner Georgia Jones.

We are currently in the process of planning our third visit from a peer of the realm to talk to students about the country's systems of democracy, and are pleased to announce that we were successful in our application to take part in the European Youth Parliament UK Forum in March.

May we take this opportunity to wish you all a very Happy and Peaceful New Year.
