MacMillan Coffee Morning

held 27th September

Carol Milbanke and Evelyn Lambert thank all who supported the event held at Hagley Free Church. The people of Hagley and districts around united to produce the magnificent sum of £850. £100 of this amount was gift-aided, from which MacMillan Cancer Support can claim a further £25.

Special thanks to the regular H.F.C. Coffee Morning group who not only allowed us to take over their regular Friday morning spot, but also donated £100 from their own charity funds.

Stall holders, cake makers, raffle ticket sellers, donators of goods and money – well done and many thanks!

Dear Editor,

As a regular user of the Community Centre, Hagley Afternoon W.I. has been, for some time, concerned at the use of the Community Centre car park by members of the public who are not using the building.

This has in the past caused problems for members, but became very apparent at a meeting held on the afternoon of 23rd October.

Hagley Afternoon W.I. was hosting nine W.I.s in the Community Centre so there were a considerable number of cars, necessitating double parking. This was not thought to be a problem as it was assumed that all car owners were attending the event.

However, on two occasions the meeting was interrupted by requests for drivers to move their cars to allow members of the public to leave the car park.

Please would everyone be aware that the car park is for Community Centre users and that there is a sign to that effect at the entrance to said car park.

THANK YOU.

Megan Bury - President, Hagley Afternoon W.I.

Dear Editor,

What a pleasure it is to visit our library. The staff is always helpful, full of knowledge and ready to have a chat. While I was in today, a gentleman said he had lived in Hagley for 20 years and it was the first time he had been in the library. Are there any more residents that haven't used the library? If so, you don't know what you are missing, whether it is to borrow a book, read the paper, use the computer, find out what's on around and about or to have a chat.

If we don't use it we may lose it and we wouldn't want that to happen.

HAGLEY PARISH COUNCIL

May I take this opportunity to wish everyone a Merry Christmas, Happy New Year and season's greetings to one and all from everyone at HPC.

Winter message

As another year draws to an end and we approach the depths of winter additional grit bins have been ordered and existing ones filled with rock salt. Winter brings few surprises so please remember our elderly and vulnerable neighbours particularly in cold periods. Hagley has a number of excellent charity and voluntary groups and are always looking for support. These groups are essential and give support to many people in times of difficulty. Their contact details can be found in the back of the Hagley Village News.

There will be a programme of tree management in the playing fields and replanting where trees have died.

HPC has always owned the cemetery in Park Rd but will also now take over the administration of burials from BDC. The Parish Clerks will be the main points of contact for future burial services.

I would like to highlight that HPC distributes a quarterly newsletter (Hagley Matters) to Hagley homes. For those non Hagley residents or if you have missed it this newsletter is now available on the website at www.Hagleyparishcouncil.gov.uk with latest agenda and minutes, local information and latest updates and reports. The main topic this quarter was the report that HPC has resolved to adopt a strategic village plan aimed at supporting and enhancing community amenities, community cohesion and neighbourhood planning. More information will be published over the coming months.

At the time of writing the McCarthy and Stone, Park Rd application is due to go before the planning committee on the 9th December 6 pm. Comments can still be made in the usual way.

Chairman, Hagley Parish Council

Dr. N.W. Turner B.D.S. – 30 years experience

Hagley Historical & Field Society (HHFS)

After the briefest of AGMs, our speaker, Chris Upton gave us a talk with the intriguing title of 'Yours Disgusted: Letters to local News Papers'. While the content of newspapers has changed considerably over the last 250 years, his research into back issues has revealed that the topics of the letters page had changed little over time and served mainly to give readers the opportunity to confirm their prejudices and share their outrages.

He gave numerous examples of outrageous and humorous letters among which was one dated 1908 from 'disgusted of Edgbaston' complaining about the 'road hogs' in New Street, Birmingham, causing so much dust from their inconsiderate driving that he constantly arrived at his place of work 'begrimed'.

He told us that probably the longest running local newspaper was the Aris's Birmingham Gazette which ran from 1741 until absorbed into the Birmingham Post in 1956. In 1831, while sales were a modest 7000 copies, it was estimated that there were up to 20 readers of each copy and thus very popular with advertisers. By the 1890s there were 20 regular local newspapers. Among them the 'Owl' and the 'Dart', similar in style to Punch Magazine, ran until 1914. This was a watershed for such newspapers as their humour was found incompatible with the horrors and misery of the First World War.

Our meeting on 3rd December sees John Turrell talking about 'Children's Games'. Visitors are most welcome at all our events – see hhfs.org.uk for details and contacts.

CLUB REPORTS

AFTERNOON W.I.

On a sunny afternoon in October Hagley Afternoon W.I. hosted a meeting for nine W.I.s; the theme for the event being 'Teddy Bears'. Dr. Gillian White gave an amusing and informative talk on 'The Hugely Huggable History of the Teddy Bear'. Afternoon Tea was then served and the meeting closed with a short entertainment by four members.

The Speaker at the October monthly meeting was Karen O'Connor, an oboist with several prestigious orchestras and for many years with the C.B.S.O. The story of her life at this time was most interesting but on retirement she began to help others to deal with nerves and worries of solo performance. A fascinating talk which was much enjoyed.

Members now look forward to social occasions and excellent speakers in the coming months. We hope that the November Fashion Show will generate a goodly sum. The aim is to raise money for another 'Seat in the Sun' which will be to commemorate Hagley Afternoon W.I.'s 95th Birthday in 2016.

We enjoy welcoming new people as visitors or prospective members to our meetings, which are held on the 2nd Monday in each month, 2 p.m. at the Community Centre.

If we sound interesting please come to a meeting or contact the undersigned on 885215 for further information.

Megan Bury

EVENING W.I.

October was a fairly busy month for our WI: at the monthly meeting we had an inspirational talk by Judith Bates on the 'Curiosities of Birmingham' and with the help of slides she showed us around the fine terracotta buildings of the City as well as elegant Georgian architecture. Her message to us was 'look up' we miss so much by not doing so.

Also in October Hagley Afternoon WI held the Group meeting, a talk about 'Hugely Huggable Teddy Bears' which was very amusing.

The Annual Council meeting for the County was held at Malvern and was enjoyed by members. The speakers were of the usual high calibre the final one being Kate Bliss of Flog It fame. The competitions were well supported the theme being 95 years of WI.

Our end of the month lunch was held at The Old House at Home, Blakedown, this pub having re opened and the food and service are excellent.

Our meetings are held on the third Wednesday of the month at the Free Church Hall starting at 7.30pm, you are very welcome to come and join us with no strings attached. For more information please contact Pauline on 882875 or Liz on 01384 828654.

HAGLEY ART CLUB

ART CLUB

Friday 13th December will be our Christmas Social Evening, when we will be entertained by Richard Westcott, 'the Pantomime Dame'. No painting, just fun and refreshments!

Looking ahead to our programme in the New Year, at our meeting on Friday 10th January, our visiting artist will be Eric Watson, demonstrating 'Wildlife in Pastel'.

Hope you enjoyed our Exhibition in November. I will give results of the voting for the best liked pictures next month.

Anne Garth

CLUB REPORTS

TREFOIL GUILD

We always have a lovely Christmas party and this year's will not be the exception. There was much of 2013 we could have done without, but lots of high spots too, with birthday celebrations, some learning sessions and the wedding of one of our members. So, not quite so much a normal twelve months then, after all.

The party will be held at 42 Summervale Road on Thursday December 12th at 7.30pm. No expense will be spared; the heating will be on and the oven warmed for the mince pies. We know how to enjoy ourselves, we Trefoilers, so why not join us in 2014?

E.O.Gingell

Hagley Rambler Scout Group

The Hagley Scouts, Cubs and Beavers would like to thank everyone who supported the Village Bonfire back at the start of November. It was a great event despite the weather. I would particularly like to thank Lord Cobham for the use of the field, the Scott Explorer Unit for the hot food, the Leaders (including Simba and the rest of the organising team) and the parents who helped throughout the weekend and behind the scenes. Can someone please order better weather for next year though?

As we move towards the end of the autumn term our sections will be getting ready for their usual Christmas parties. This year the Scouts are going go-karting. We are also preparing for our Christmas post. Stamps and post boxes will be available from Saturday 30th November from Walton and Hipkiss or Cavendish Cleaners. The final collection will be on Wednesday 18th December at 12 noon.

Thank you for your continued support.

Claire Crowley, Acting GSL.

It happened in Hagley

8 November 1848 ... William Sefton was charged with stealing two bushels of potatoes from Mr Birch, a farmer ... Birch was able to follow footprints in the soft ground to Sefton's house.

“THE FIGHTING TEMERAIRE”
An illustrated talk by James Taylor.

Hagley Wives & Women’s Fellowship

Christmas celebrations start for us on December 10th when we are having an evening of Carols and Readings followed by a shared supper. 2014 begins with an Easy-Peasy Quiz (maybe) on January 14th. We are bound to have a lot of fun however hard the questions are that Ann sets.

Brian Draper makes a welcome return on January 28th, this time talking about ‘the Hidden Wildlife of a City’. He is a good speaker with excellent slides so do join us and brighten up a winter evening.

Looking ahead to February 11th, Sandy Cale who brought us a wonderful talk on Georgian Worcester will talk about ‘the Great Escape of Charles II after the Battle of Worcester’.

We start our meetings at St Saviour’s Hall at 8pm.

You are most welcome to join us. Do phone on 884079 if you need more information.

THEATRE GROUP

Last month's issue of the Village News noted the achievements of John Luxton who passed away recently. The Theatre Group would also like to express its condolences to John's family and friends and also pay tribute to a former active member of the group. For many years, until the around the mid 1990s, John was our Front of House Manager and the society's treasurer. John was always dedicated and professional in these roles. Both John and his wife Betty, as the club's ticket secretary, gave sterling service and showed that you don't have to be actors or directors to be at the centre of an amateur dramatics group. Whilst preparing for comedies Betty's and John's laughter during dress rehearsals was always appreciated.

No doubt John and Betty would have been pleased to hear of the great success that our Youth Section achieved with their production of the lively musical Grease staged at the Community Centre (9-12 October). This was a challenging production but all the hard work paid off with the show playing to sell out audiences each night. The show was reviewed by the National Operatic and Dramatic Society's (NODA) regional representative who commented that the 'two lead roles were excellently played by Jonny Lewis (Danny) and Chloe Lansbury (Sandy), as were the whole cast with standout performances from Ellie Martin (Jan), John Duggan (Roger) and James Sutton (Sonny). These three had the comedy roles and certainly made the most of them but there was no shortfall in any of the performances from the rest of the cast and chorus...The grouping, movement and dancing of the Company and Principals was excellent and Show Director Mark Payne and Choreographer Alain Dubreuil must have been very satisfied with the outcome. The car design and construction by Colin Judges was superb and the whole backstage and front of house personnel deserve great credit for their contribution to the success of the production.'

The Youth Section will build on this success and have already determined that their next show, scheduled for October, will be 'Les Miserables'. We will provide more information about this in future issues of the Village News. We wish everyone a happy Christmas and New Year. 2014 could be the year that you determine that you would like to take part in acting, directing, front of house or backstage. If so please phone 07907 457217 and leave a message. We will be very pleased to hear from you.

Hagley Catholic High School

October saw our Sixth Form Information Evening, where we welcomed many new potential students into our school to gain an insight into Sixth Form life at Hagley. The Voice, our pupil council, made up and delivered a substantial number of Harvest Boxes to our local residents and a number of recipients took the time to write to Mr Hammond to express their gratitude.

Monday 18 November marked the twentieth anniversary of the M40 minibus tragedy in which we lost thirteen members of our school community in 1993. We were grateful to be able to be able celebrate Mass in the School Hall with Bishop David McGough on the afternoon of the anniversary, with a significant number of families, ex-pupils and ex-staff in attendance to mark the occasion. Our thoughts and prayers remain with those families who were involved in this most harrowing tragedy.

Our annual Christmas Celebration is in our School Hall at 7.00pm on Tuesday 10 December and will be a traditional carol service, following the Nine Lessons & Carols format, made famous by Cambridge University. Local residents are welcome to join us for an evening of carol singing, followed by our now traditional Christmas Fayre, which helps to raise much-needed funds for the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes next May.

The festive season is also being marked by a production of Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker in our Theatre at 7.00pm on Wednesday 4 December. Local residents are welcome to join the audience and should contact Mrs S Aston at the school (Tel: 883193) should you wish to purchase tickets.

On 12 December, all of our Y11 pupils are travelling over to Harvington Hall to experience a Vocations Day.

We wish you all a very happy and holy Christmas.

B. McArdle

Haybridge High School and Sixth Form

It is always good to hear about the successes of our former students, and we were delighted to learn that Laura Tuck, now a student at Girton College Cambridge, has subsequently secured one of only seven Arkwright Undergraduate scholarships awarded nationally. The scholarship, formally presented on 1st November, is valued at £12,000 and will support Laura with her engineering studies. We are also thrilled that former student and athlete Alicia Bradshaw has been selected for Team GB and will be competing at the European Games.

Meanwhile, Year 13 student Ben Hart has been awarded the prestigious national 'Inspirational Young Person' award by the WellChild organisation. At the ceremony, held last month at The Dorchester Hotel, Ben met a host of famous people including Prince Harry. Other exciting news is that Max Tobin has had his short film 'The Light Switch' shown at The Reel Youth Film Festival, part of the prestigious Vancouver International Film Festival. His film will now be shown at 30 locations around the world!

Our PTA continues to raise funds to facilitate plans to redesign and improve the outside Quad environment for pupils with seating, shelter and garden landscaping, and we are grateful to them for arranging a trip for students as part of this drive. Three coaches of pupils and staff recently enjoyed a wonderful and exciting day at Thorpe Park raising £700!

As Christmas approaches, we hope that you will be able to join us for our Christmas Concert at St John's Church on 11th December at 7.30pm.

Hagley Catholic High School commemorates the 20th Anniversary of the mini bus crash

On my first day at Hagley Catholic High School I was like any other Year 7 pupil; terrified, excited and swamped by an oversized blazer. However, when I arrived I was comforted massively by the support and strong sense of community evident in my first Religious Education lesson. During this lesson I was shown the beautiful stained glass memorial window created in memory of the 12 students and teacher who lost their lives in the tragic mini bus crash of 1993.

On the 18th November 2013 prayers were said at a private mass at Hagley Catholic High School in a memorial service to commemorate the 20th anniversary. Mr Hammond explained “This year what we’re doing to mark the 20th anniversary, is a little bit special. On the 18th of November, which was the actual anniversary of the accident, Bishop David McGough came back to school to lead a Mass to which families and friends of the school were invited”. An estimated congregation of around 200 people attended the Mass.

Mr Hammond explained how the school has marked this tragic event, “Every year since the accident we’ve marked the anniversary in an appropriate manner. We’ve always had, in the School Chapel, exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a Mass to commemorate members of the school community who have died. I think the fact that we’re a faith school gives us an appropriate focus as to how we mark the anniversary”. To recognise the significance of the 20th anniversary Bishop David McGough also blessed the memorial stained glass window.

A second service on the 19th November was held with the school’s own Chaplain Father Martin as the main celebrant, to commemorate the lives of all the members of the school community who have died because, as Mr Hammond added, “there are tragically other people we need to remember, such as the members of staff, pupils and parents that we record in our Memorial book.”

The mini-bus crash occurred on the M40 in 1993. The students and teacher were returning from a trip to the Royal Albert Hall, London. The collision sadly took the lives of 12 pupils aged 12 and 13 and their teacher Miss Fry. Charlotte Bligh, Ruth Clark, Fiona Cook, Claire Fitzgerald, Louise Gunn, James Hickman, Adele Howell, Anna Mansell, Nicola Misiolek and Richard Pagett all died at the scene. Charlene O’Dowd passed away later that day in hospital and Katie Murray the following day. Holly Caldwell and Bethany O’Doherty survived the tragic crash.

Over the years memorials have been created around the school in memory of those in the crash. The memorial window includes inscriptions of the victims’ names and musical instruments. The other memorials include the Music Block and the Memorial Garden. Family members and friends were invited to bring along plants to be added to the Memorial Garden.

Mr Hammond, on reflection, stated, “It’s hard to believe it was 20 years ago.” I am confident that many will agree with our Headteacher. Having been a member of the school community myself for the past 6 years, it is very apparent that the crash is an important part of our school history and that although 20 years have passed, the deceased, their families and friends are still very much in everyone’s thoughts and prayers here at Hagley, as they are also in many of our parishes and the local area.
