EDITORIAL

A very Happy New Year to all our readers! All at HCA hope you have had a lovely Christmas break and that the New Year brings peace and prosperity to all.

I maintain that January 1st is no time to start new resolutions, what with the cold and the post-Christmas blues, but if you have, good luck! Perhaps one of them could be to join one of Hagley's great societies!

Congratulations to Art Club on their 25th anniversary.

Dear Editor,

As we begin the New Year we would very like to take this opportunity to thank all of our customers old and new who have welcomed Sarah and I as the new owners of Lily Blue.

Since taking over the reins in November the welcome and support we have had from the community has been overwhelming and we wanted to say we are delighted to be a part of the Hagley business community.

Our aim is to meet and exceed the demands of our discerning clientèle and to give shoppers in Hagley a reason to visit us; we hope to offer a good mix of shop and social heart to the community.

Thank you again to our supporters and we look forward to sharing our new ideas with you all in 2014.

Angela and Sarah, Lily Blue Gifts and Home Ltd

HCA

HCA would like to say ‘thank you’ to a number of people for another year of good work! We have been well supported by the village, in our request for extra help, and you will see from page 6 that we have a number of new team members on board - many thanks for coming forward to help and welcome to the team!.

Our advertisers have continued to support us and we appreciate your loyalty. We hope new advertisers enjoy the same support and success – thank you.

It is always a pleasure to receive the contributions to the Village News from our affiliated societies and I am still happy to receive these through the door if you are not yet electronic! Pieces should be typed and not more than 250 words – thank you!

I won’t forget our Distributors – huge thanks to you and for joining us for the Mulled Wine and Mince Pies Extravaganza!

Thank you Readers for your continued interest and please do contact us if you would like to be involved in any way – the Community Association is so important to our village.

Here’s to this year, continued success and the continuation of HCA and the Village News!

HAGLEY PARISH COUNCIL

Happy New Year! The members of Hagley Parish Council hope 2014 is a good year for all residents.

You may be aware of the proposals by Worcester County Council to withdraw funding for some bus services across the county. This may affect the bus services in the village and subject to a review and a public consultation. So if you wish to comment and have not already done so, paper copies are available from the library or via www.worcestershire.gov.uk/busservicereview. Consultation closes on January 17th with changes effective from September 2014.

Issues high on the Parish agenda are the current County Council review of public services; Public Transport consultation (above) and the review of Library services. Both of these reviews (amongst others) are against a backdrop of public service funding cuts at County Hall and any loss in community services will affect communities like Hagley.

Hagley Parish Council is seeking to ensure that these services are protected as far as possible by having meaningful discussions with WCC and looking at ways in which we can support our own services where they are directly affected in Hagley. The options presented to the Parish Council will be considered fully as soon as the final detail is known.

As we reflect on the past year and think of those to come the issues discussed above could not be more reflective of how the work of a parish council has changed; two or three years ago the members of the Parish Council were dealing with matters on dog dirt and litter, today, although these issues are still relevant, we are concerned with the very potential closure of library services and the loss or reduction of the public bus service.

The member's of HPC remain committed to ensuring Hagley remains vibrant and attractive and will continue to keep the interests of the community at its heart.

Once more sincere best wishes for a happy new year to one and all.

Steve Colella, Hagley Parish Council

Historical & Field Society

November's meeting had a local flavour as our speakers, Pauline and Geoff Hayward, presented a very personal history of Churchill Forge on the Ganlow Brook which rises in the Clent Hills. The Forge has been in the hands of Pauline's Bache family for many years. It is now maintained as an historical legacy in the hands of a preservation trust, as no commercial metalwork has been produced since Pauline's father, Claude retired in 1969.

We now see Churchill in a rural setting but during the Industrial Revolution the Blakedown and Churchill area was an important local centre for the production of metalwork to meet domestic, agricultural and industrial needs.

Pauline and Geoff brought examples of the wares which had been produced in her father's time which included forks, rakes and shovels. The proximity to a railway station allowed quick distribution of these wares to outlets such as Woolworths and Harrods in London. A speciality of the Forge was the production of ladles which were used in the glass and non-ferrous metal industries around Stourbridge. She showed a DVD explaining the workings of the Forge which featured her father demonstrating the process by which ladles were made from iron bars.

It is expected that the interest generated by this talk will lead to a visit by members to Churchill Forge in May next year.

Our meeting on 7th January sees Paul Collins presenting 'By Tram from Dudley'. Visitors are most welcome at all our events – see hhfs.org.uk for details and contacts.

Clent Hills Singers

Our next event will be in April 2014 - a joint Spring Concert with Hagley Community Orchestra. The programme will include the Vivaldi Gloria.

Choir rehearsals will begin again on Thursday 9th January at 7:30 pm in Hagley Free Church. New singers would be warmly welcomed, especially Tenors and Basses! An ability to read music is a help but not an absolute requirement.

If you are interested, please contact Wendy Pettit, our Musical Director, on 01562 730248. My telephone number is 01384 340600. Alternatively, just come along!

CLUB REPORTS

AFTERNOON W.I.

The Fashion Show arranged by Hagley Afternoon W.I. while not being as well attended as had been hoped, raised a reasonable sum towards 'Another Seat in the Sun' fund. Members are now thinking of new ways to make money for the seat. It is hoped it will be in place for 21st December 2016 which is the 95th Birthday of Hagley Afternoon W.I.

Christmas Lunch was once more at Barnt Green Cricket Club. A warm, comfortable, beautifully arranged venue for a delicious lunch, much enjoyed by all who attended.

The jollities of the festive season having passed the new year begins with a talk on 'Corsetry'. It is hoped that members will enter a Limerick Competition on 'Underwear' with the first line starting 'A Pretty Young Lady from.....'

With good Speakers on food, a charity, songs etc: as well as outings and other events on the programme, 2014 should be another good year for Hagley Afternoon.

Members enjoy entertaining visitors and prospective members so if you might be interested we meet at Hagley Community Centre on the 2nd Monday in each month at 2 p.m.

If you wish to make contact beforehand please telephone the undersigned on 885215.

Megan Bury

EVENING W.I.

Our recent meeting in November proved very successful. Several members demonstrated their take on popular dishes that are easy to make, keep well so can be made in advance and are always well received. To prove the latter point samples of everything made were distributed to the members, to good response.

As I write this we are now looking forward to Christmas with all that entails in the way of Christmas Carols, good cheer and fellowship. Due to the necessary lead time, by the time you read this, Christmas will be past and we shall all be trying to live up to our New Year Resolutions. One of these is to move on from the standard image of WI as 'Jam & Jerusalem', hence WI now also means Women who Inspire others. If anyone feels they could inspire others or are in need of inspiration, do come and join us.

Our next meeting is at 7.30pm on Wednesday 15th January, in the Hagley Free Church Hall when we shall be hearing a talk by Patrick Clements on Nature and Conservation; the Work of a Wildlife Group. Do come and join us, you would be most welcome. For more information our contact numbers are Hagley 882829 or 882875.

CLUB REPORTS

ART CLUB 25th Anniversary Year

It is hard to believe that it is 25 years since a small group of us met at Alan Pritchard's home to discuss the possibility of starting an Art Club in Hagley. We opened in January 1989 with approximately 25 members. During our first year we were only able to book a few demonstrators as we had to build up funds. We therefore held a number of painting sessions which were advantageous for some of the members who had joined out of interest and had never painted before. Over the years the club has changed and grown and our membership now stands at 80. We are planning to hold a celebratory evening mid-way through the year in June.

Our Annual Exhibition was again very successful and well supported. The results of the voting for the 'Best Liked Picture' are as follows:

1st	No.38 'Thirty Knots true' – Hazel Gillard
Joint 2nd	No.59 'Autumn Moorings' – John Instance and No.67 'Walled Garden' – Graham Madders
3rd	No.93 'African Girl' – Sandra Robinson

At our meeting on Friday 10th January, our visiting artist is Eric Watson, who will be demonstrating 'Wild Life in Pastel'. Looking ahead to February our visiting artist will be Michelle Howard demonstrating 'Flowers in Mixed Media'.

Hagley Wives & Women's Fellowship

Our 2014 programme begins with an Easy-Peasy Quiz (maybe) on January 14th. We can expect an evening of light-hearted quizzing which will wake up our post Christmas brains.

Brian Draper makes a welcome return on January 28th, this time talking about The Hidden Wildlife of a City. He is a good speaker with excellent slides so do join us and brighten up a winter evening.

Looking ahead to February 11th, Sandy Cale who brought us a wonderful talk on Georgian Worcester will talk about The Great Escape of Charles II after the Battle of Worcester.

We start our meetings at St Saviour's Hall at 8pm. Why not come and spend a winter evening with our group and enjoy our varied selection of speakers.

Do phone on 884079 if you need more information.

THEATRE GROUP

As we enter a new year perhaps it's time to consider that you might like to get involved in something new or revitalise an interest or talent you have or maybe discover a talent you didn't know you've got. Consider then escaping into someone else's world and then bringing their story alive to audiences here in Hagley. Now is a good time for adults to join our society and get involved in roles that are needed to stage drama, comedy and musicals. There's scope for acting, directing, stage management, lighting, properties and front of house.

Whilst our Adult Section considers its next production, our Youth Section will build on their considerable success, achieved with their production of Grease, by staging one of the most popular musicals in recent times; 'Les Miserables' in October. More details will follow in the next issue of the Village News.

Have a great 2014, and if you do think that now is the time you would like to get involved then please leave a message on 07907 457217.

Tony Forrest

TREFOIL GUILD

Our A.G.M. served its purpose. We were found to be solvent and sorted out a programme for 2014. Our deliberations were not long drawn out because the venue was very cold. In the past we may well have put a brave face on it, but instead opted to go home early.

We were invited to the presentation evening for Mary Wenham to mark her retirement as Division Commissioner. 'A Cheese and Wine Evening with Curling'. Forget Winter Olympics and ice rinks and substitute a far cosier church hall with a game rather like bowling, but without having to bend down. And very enjoyable it was too. The Memory Book which had been prepared for Mary was very impressive and obviously made with enthusiasm and flair.

The January meeting will be an afternoon of Scrabble at 42 Summervale Road at 2.30pm on Thursday January 9th. This will not be too late to wish each other a Happy New Year, but late enough for there to be no pesky New Year Resolutions still in place.

E.O.Gingell

CLUB REPORTS

Beat the winter blues and pay a visit to Artrix this January.

As always we have something for everyone, including a number of well-known tribute bands, ballet, great comedy and Shakespeare.

Classical highlights include Julian and Jiaxin Lloyd Webber presenting A Tale of Two Cellos and a Royal Ballet Live production of Giselle. This performance, which will be screened live to the theatre, will include the fabulous Carlos Acosta amongst the dancers.

We have plenty on offer for those who want to relive the musical hits of the 60s and 70s, including Sgt Pepper's Only Dart Board Band, Deep Purple and Led Zeppelin act Purple Zeppelin, Queen Tribute band Flash and the ever popular Counterfeit Stones. For those who like their rock American style, Jefferson Starship will be visiting as part of their worldwide tour to celebrate their 40th anniversary. World music enthusiasts have a treat in store with Glamba, a fun theatrical percussion group who will be performing a unique blend of Brazilian, African and world beats.

For fans of Shakespeare there's a stunning production of Coriolanus , part of the NT Live series of screenings and in comedy we have the hilarious Sean Hughes. Sean will be presenting his new show Penguins which went down a storm at the Edinburgh Festival.

For further information on all the shows in January, please visit www.artrix.co.uk or call the box office on 01527 577330

JANUARY 2014

Sunday 5 January – The Licensing of the new Archdeacon of Dudley.

The Revd Nikki Groarke is to be licensed as the new Archdeacon for this area at 4.00 pm in St Thomas' Stourbridge. She has moved to the Diocese of Worcester from London where she has been Vicar of St. Stephen's Church in Canonbury, Islington.

Monday 6 January –Twelfth Night 7.30 pm St John's.

It has become a tradition to have an evening of entertainment, with some refreshments, on the evening of Twelfth Night every year. This usually consists of a mixture of poems, monologues and music, presented by members of the congregation. Everyone's very welcome.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity takes place from 18 to 25 January. Our local ecumenical service for the Hagley and District Association of Churches will be at 6.30 pm on Sunday 19 January in St Saviour's Church. This year's material has been put together by the Churches of French Canada on the theme of "Is Christ Divided?" and provides readings and reflections for each day, as well as a service that we shall use on the Sunday evening.

Hagley Catholic High School

Happy New Year! We hope that all local residents were able to find some peace during the Christmas period and that 2014 brings with it a sense of fulfilment to you. As we begin a new calendar year, Hagley Catholic High School continues to be a hive of activity for our pupils...

Recent Events

In the run up to the Christmas holidays, December saw a number of successful performances from our pupils and students. Within the Arts Department, we enjoyed a very energetic Winter Concert featuring various recitations of festive musical numbers ranging from carols to popular music. This was closely followed a number of performances of The Nutcracker. Featuring ninety-nine pupils of all ages, the Dance Department pulled out all the stops to showcase the talent amongst our pupils by treating us to custom-choreographed routines to music from the Suite. The religious highlight of Christmas celebrations was our Nine Lessons & Carols service, which provided the opportunity for families to join us in singing their favourite Christmas Carols and hear the story of salvation history from the Bible. Afterwards, the Christmas Fayre proved to be a hubbub of activity, helping to raise money for our Sixth Formers' annual pilgrimage to Lourdes.

Y9 pupils worked with a professional willow artist to design and make a sculpture which has been installed at the bottom of the school field, adjacent to the railway line. Pupils were briefed to design a sculpture to reflect the ethos of the school; you will see they have designed an angelic dancer holding a cross, which pupils plan to use a prayer tree in the summer months.

On Wednesday 4 December two pupils attended a cooking competition at Pedmore Technology College. They were asked to prepare, cook and serve a healthy main course meal and dessert for two people as economically as possible. One made stuffed chicken with lemon in a tomato sauce served with French beans and new potatoes and a strawberry cream dessert; the other made fillet of salmon served with roasted new potatoes, asparagus, roasted vine tomatoes with a sweet chilli sauce, with a dessert of conference pears poached in spiced apple juice with quenelles of vanilla cream. Tasty!

On 12 December, our Y11 pupils attended Vocations Day at Harvington Hall, where they learnt about the religious life of three orders and a diocesan priest.

Haybridge High School and Sixth Form

At the start of 2013 Ms Hoddinott set the students a challenge to carry out a thousand good deeds by the end of the year, and we were well on track to meet this target at the time of going to press. The end of term was very busy and very festive, with the 'Wear a Christmas Jumper for Charity' day, the PTA Christmas shopping event and the magical Christmas Concert at St John's Church.

Individual student successes continue in a wide range of areas. Emily Evans, Maddie Baker and Alex Small sang in 'The Nutcracker' at the newly refurbished Birmingham Repertory Theatre on 22nd November and 11th December; Ethan Osborne, Saffron Rennison, Phoebe Sutton and Jasmin Knight have been selected to run in the cross country for Wyre Forest at the county event at Hereford Racecourse on Sat 1st February; Jamieson Blain in Year 7 has won the British Schools Cycling Association U12 Boys National title for 2013, a coveted championship which has been won in the past by some of today's most successful cyclists including Chris Boardman and Sir Bradley Wiggins. Also in Year 7, Thomas Paradise, an outstanding young gymnast has been competing in the British Championships and is currently the National Elite level 3 Champion. Finally, we have recently heard that the school has been awarded the Leading Parent Partnership Award for a further three years in recognition of the outstanding links which exist between home and school. Well done everyone and a Happy New Year.

HAGLEY ROTARY CLUB

On the 20th September 2013, the Rotary clubs of Hagley and Kinver came together to organise a concert in favour of their charities. The event raised a total of £2000. The Kemp Hospice received a donation of £600 whilst the Rotary club of Hagley donated £600 to shelter box for the Philippines.

Our club also made Christmas donations to various local charities including Elizabeth Atwood House, Hagley Senior Citizens, The Hand of Friendship, The Friday Club and St Basil's Hospice.

President David Dewhirst and the members of the Rotary club of Hagley would like to extend their Christmas greetings to all.

We hope you can join us for one or all of the social and fundraising events that we will be organising in 2014, the first of which is the cabaret night to be held on 21st February at the Hagley community centre.

If you would like to learn more about the Rotary's local, national and international activities, please visit our website on www.1060.org.uk/hagley, or find us on Facebook and twitter.
