EDITORIAL

November 2015

Thank you to those people who have taken the time to speak to me about the Editorship of the Village News; your kind words are much appreciated.

The Bonfire is this month, a real Autumn treat, we look forward to seeing you, plus the HCA A.G.M., on 23rd, it would be good to see as many people as possible there and to see the Parish Council presentation as well.

HAGLEY PARISH COUNCIL

There will be a full presentation on the Community Centre Hub (Chub) project on the 23rd November at the Community Association's AGM where stage two public consultation will be launched. The AGM is open to the public to attend (further details in this month's news) where there will be an opportunity to look at the draft plans developed from the first consultation process.

The emerging plan to rebuild the centre is to improve current facilities and incorporate a number of other partners as well as making it multi-functional and multi-occupational. The project is entering an important stage where your views, opinions and comments are required. This is a community lead project where the team will be outlining its vision for the centre.

On behalf of everyone at Hagley Parish Council I would like to thank Anna (Editor of the News) for everything she has done for the News, all the help she has given the Parish Council and wish her all the very best for the future and good luck to the editor in waiting. Best wishes also go to Andy and Maggie who are also stepping down from the maintenance team at the centre. We wish them the very best for the future and a well-earned rest.

I am happy to report that the long term security of the village library has now been formally secured. Under the ground breaking arrangement, HPC will contribute to the upkeep of the building whilst the County Council will ensure that the library service continues as it is now.

In a separate initiative, Hagley Parish Council has also succeeded in registering the Library Building as a protected Community Asset which imposes certain constraints on any future plans to dispose of it.

Dr. N.W. Turner B.D.S. – 30 years experience

Historical & Field Society

The first recorded establishment of Almshouses we were told by Ned Williams our speaker this month, date back to the 10th century in York built by King Athelstan. They were based on a Christian tradition of providing a place of residence for poor, old and distressed people. However, you can still see them today in places as near as Bewdley and even in fishing ports such as Padstow. They are usually distinguished by plaques and in Droitwich you can find some entitled for the benefit of 'Decayed Saltmakers'.

We seem to have a number of centenary anniversaries this year. In addition to the First and Second World War anniversaries we also have the signing of Magna Carta in 1215 and the battle of Waterloo in 1815. There are some more quirky anniversaries. In 1715 the first Doggett's Coat and Badge rowing race was held on the River Thames and if you had been in the right place at the right time you could have bought Stone Henge at auction for £6,600 in 1915.

However, the anniversary I want you to be most interested in is the battle of Agincourt in 1415. At our next meeting on Tuesday 3rd November we have a presentation by Max Keen entitled 'King Henry V and Agincourt: England's Greatest Three Hours?'. He will be wearing armour in the style of the period. From experience we know he will be both enlightening and also very entertaining. Visitors are most welcome at all our events – see hhfs.org.uk for details and contacts.

CLUB REPORTS

HAGLEY W.I.

At the first meeting of the autumn the speaker was most entertaining and informative on her subject of "Life as a BBC Producer". She took us through her life and her ambitions as a young woman - most of which were never attained - and on to the present day. We heard of her time working with Terry Wogan on Points of View and her various jobs in the media and how her life had progressed to finally being an author with a number of published works. We rocked with laughter at the stories of her life and all left the meeting after one of the most enjoyable afternoons we had spent. Looking forward we have many things to enjoy in the run-up to Christmas - the WI movements Centenary, lunches at various venues and interesting speakers at our monthly meetings.

If you would like to join us we meet at Hagley Community Centre, 2nd Monday in each month at 2pm. Contact the undersigned on 01562 885215 for further information - members would be delighted to welcome you.

Megan Bury

Hagley Tuesday Group

Formerly Hagley wives and Women's Fellowship

We had a most entertaining evening with Pat Boyd, who spoke about wedding traditions in September and feel that our forthcoming events also will be well worth attending. On November 10th, we have 'Nova Chocolates' coming to give a demonstration and there will be a sales table afterwards. This is to be followed by a talk from Keith Clenton, 'Birmingham City Centre Back in Time' on November 24th, both talks are at 8pm at St Saviour's Hall. We are planning a trip to Bicester Village, the shopping outlet, on Wednesday 18th November, so if you are interested please contact our new Leader Ann Pagett to see if there are any places available. 01562- 882692

Our Christmas service and supper will be on 8th December at St Saviour's.

Gardeners' Club

The Annual Harvest Supper proved another success with the usual tasty assorted ploughman's followed by an excellent choice of sweets; all under the guidance of our social committee member Judy Iliff. The evening finished off with our chairman (John Oakes) testing our brains with two of his mind boggling quizzes.

The last meeting of the year will be on November 25th when we end on a high note with a have a return visit from one of our favourite speakers Adrian James from Offenham and he is giving his new Talk 'Four Seasons and a Festival'

Tickets for our Annual Social on January 27th 2016. are now on sale. We don't have a December Meeting and entry to the Social is by ticket only. Apply to Judy Iliff (01562 883568). We have outside caterers to serve us a hot meal and we include wine. Our evening is further enhanced by Mary Bodfish who will be giving us one of her entertaining Talks entitled ' You Can't Abdicate and Eat it' A good start to welcome in 2016.

Happy Gardening

HAGLEY PACT UPDATE

On 26th September PCSO Stuart Taylor of Hagley Police, with attendance from Councillor Steve Colella and myself, held a PACT event in the village centre, which also included Police giving out crime prevention advice and products.

Numerous villagers attended, raising a number of issues of concern which had been previously highlighted. As a result, the Hagley PACT priorities will continue to be those prioritised from the previous PACT, which are therefore for the next few months:

1. Vehicle /pedestrian safety issues including increased speeding, and extra traffic congestion of re-designed traffic light junction of A456 / B4187 Worcester Road; and confusing road markings of lanes on Cala roundabout

Action: Hagley Parish Council along with County Councillor Rachel Jenkins to continue to request actions by senior officers at Worcestershire County Council with the aim to correct any fault in the junction layout / road markings.

2. Illegal / dangerous parking outside Hagley Primary School

Action: Officers from Hagley Policing Team to attend fortnightly to monitor / take action where necessary.

3. Speeding along A456 including Kidderminster Road South, Birmingham Road and Worcester Road.

Action: Officers from Hagley Policing Team to carry out enforcement operations at least monthly using pro-laser speed devices.

Other issues raised included illegal drug taking in the playing fields area, more anti-litter signage in litter hot-spots, and air pollution concerns along the A456.

CLUB REPORTS

Comedy from Ed Byrne and Jeremy Hardy, the best of Blues music with the Blues Band and a visit from David Starkey are amongst the highlights at Artrix this November

There's plenty in store for music fans this month. Raymond Froggatt, a stalwart of the music industry for over 50 years make a welcome return visit. Old-time American string and country music band Grey Wolf play their first ever Studio gig at Artrix and the Robinson Stone Brothers pay tribute to one of England's greatest singer-songwriters in The Life and Music of Clifford T Ward. In complete contrast, The Night Watch celebrate the changing year in 13th to 18th century music in Singing the Seasons. Tribute act Bon Giovi will perform all the best tracks by Bon Jovi and The Blues Band will dazzle the audience with their showmanship and talent.

The UK's leading constitutional historian David Starkey will tackle the Magna Carta and James Franco and Chris O'Dowd will star in the NT Live production Of Mice and Men. There's a treat for dance lovers when local dance company 2Faced Dance present Dreaming In Code.

There's a packed bill of comedy this month too including Ed Byrne, Rob Beckett, Hal Crutenden and Jeremy Hardy.

Films at Artrix cinema in November include Bill Bryson's Walk in the Woods, and Black Country humour movie Doreen-The Movie starring Robert Plant.

For further information on all the shows in November, please visit www.artrix.co.uk or call the box office on 01527 577330

Rosie Hamilton

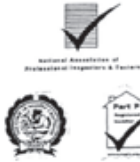

The International Evening was Italian; a large lasagne with salad and lots of tomatoes, followed by Italian ice-cream satisfied in more ways than one. Thank you Katie for your hospitality. At one point the conversation moved to 'foolish things I have done recently'. These ranged from being locked out, effusively greeting strangers to putting petrol into a diesel car. But the winner was the member who, whilst paying the Council for a wheelie bin, and giving her visa number over the 'phone, found she had problems. Not surprisingly, she was holding the card upside down. On examination it was discovered that the only numbers that cannot be read upside down are 3s. We learn something every meeting.

It's A.G.M. time again in November, on 10th. We are meeting at the Community Centre at 7.30pm. There was an idea that a Fish and Chip Supper would be nice, Marjorie or Jackie will have the details.

NOVEMBER 2015

Sunday 1 November: All Souls’ Service, St Saviour’s at 6.30 pm. We will remembering all those who have died in the past year whose funerals we have taken, and inviting families to come and light a candle. Everyone’s very welcome.

Friday 6 November: Messy Church St Saviour’s Church Hall 3.15-4.45 pm: Theme “All you need is Love”. Children with a parent / carer are all very welcome. Food, playtime, story, craft activities, lots of fun!

Thursday 19 November: Mothers’ Union Meeting: St Saviour’s Church Hall 2.30 pm: Speaker Karen Turnock (CHADD) on “Support for Victims of Domestic Abuse” Do come and join us for this very important topic.

November Discussion Groups

This November we will once again be holding a series of discussion groups with members of Hagley Free Church. The groups will be in the back room of St Saviour’s Church Hall at 11.00 a.m. on Thursday mornings, on the theme “Living in One World”, and will be led by David Tennant and Richard Newton. The themes will be: “Consumerism” on 5th November, “Money” on 12th, “Work” on 19th, and “Family Life” on 26th. Everyone is very welcome

UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE

September: Members returned from the August break to St Saviour's, eager to hear from this month's guest speaker. The speaker was Philip Duckworth who talked about his career as an Auctioneer of antique furniture with Christies. He also gave a very interesting insight into the way valuation of antiques has changed; he explained it has now become very much a London based process. The talk was followed by refreshments giving members the opportunity to catch up with friends and share their news of summer.

October: Our guest speaker was Roger Hailwood who took us on a tour of Ireland but not to the usual places visited by tourists. They were more places of artistic and literary interest, meeting the local characters and hearing stories of their antics!

November: Members can look forward to welcoming guest speaker Ned Williams on the 4th November, who titles his talk 'History with Dividends'.

December: A Christmas lunch has been arranged at The Granary Hotel on the 2nd December where members will be entertained by the Kidderminster Ukulele Club Band. Based on previous year's feedback, this should be a very popular event!

To find out what members enjoy at Hagley U3A take a look at our webpage www.hagleyu3a.org.uk where you will find a list of our learning and activity groups which take place throughout the month. For more information on how to become a member, please contact Elaine Quinn either by email at je.quinn@blueyonder.co.uk or telephone number 01384 821009.

Recent Events

October was jam-packed full of events that kept everyone on their toes. One of the highlights was the Y11 Work Experience week. We are grateful to the many employers from the local area, and way beyond, that hosted one of our pupils for their first ever taste of the working-world. This year placements included areas in law, education, child care, retail, engineering, public services and the Army. At the end of the week, the pupils were tired and returned to school with a renewed energy for their studies.

Our Open Day on 17 October was a roaring success. A particular thanks is passed on to the local residents, whose Saturday morning was featured a significant more amount of traffic than normal; your patience was much appreciated.

Members of the Gateway Club at Halas House in Halesowen enjoyed a Drum Workshop on the evening of 8 October. Members of the club are adults with severe learning difficulties and have been visiting the school for over twenty-years. Our pupils acted as hosts for the evening, and helped our guests to successfully play several (rather complicated) beats and rhythms!

Haybridge High School

Throughout the academic year 2014 to 2015, students raised over £8000 pounds for a wide range of charities, including Unicef, the air ambulance service, The Stroke Association, The British Red Cross, Marie Curie, Macmillan, NSPCC, Comic Relief, VSO and the local Mary Stevens Hospice. So far this term we have already raised over £550 in our Macmillan coffee morning and students are currently setting themselves targets and reading avidly to raise money for Readathon. Students also engage regularly with 'Free Rice', an online quiz which generates donations of free rice to the World Food Programme by global companies who sponsor the game. The WFP, a United Nations agency, uses the rice to guarantee basic rations for people in areas of acute need, like Syria, West Africa and Iraq. Our students generated two million grains of rice last year and competition between the Houses is already heating up to raise even more this year.

"It's a really simple and addictive way of helping others in need," says Michael Conroy Harris, our Community Co-ordinator. "For every answer, ten grains of rice are donated. Since we started this in October 2014 our students have clocked up a phenomenal two hundred and thirty thousand correct answers in the quizzes, which equates to a 2.3 million grains of rice! It's incredible how it has taken off. If you are interested in having a go yourself, simply visit www.freerice.com
