EDITORIAL OCTOBER 2018

Welcome to October edition of Hagley Village News.

Esther is now on her travels and HCA would like to place on record their thanks for the amazing job she has done as Editor of the Village News. I'm back as the temporary editor but we hope to have a permanent Editor in situ very soon.

There isn't the popular travel report this month but do keep up with Esther's travels on her blog: www.consumedbywanderlust.co.uk

There is much to look forward to in the village this autumn- the hugely successful Theatre Group's Youth Section are performing Half a Sixpence; the Scouts are holding their popular bonfire, the Rotary Club's Cabaret evening is coming up as well as the Art exhibition. Something for everyone.

All details are in this Village News under the Club reports- do go along and enjoy these events.

Hagley Parish Council Update

Church Street access

The closure of the access remains essential for health and safety reasons. Whilst the various playing fields works are on-going HPC cannot compromise the safety of the public and will re-open as soon as it's safe to do so. Please accept my apology for any inconvenience caused.

The Pavilion

Having made good progress earlier this year lately there has been an unavoidable delay in the works.

This was out of our control and this is primarily due to the withdrawal of one of the major contractors. This meant reappointing a replacement contractor and fitting in with that contractor's existing work book. Measures continue to complete this re-build ASAP.

Playing field

Bringing the fields back into public use has taken longer than anyone had planned for. The weather has conspired against Severn Trent, where one of the most severe winters was followed by one of the driest and hottest summers on record.

A second application of seeding will be followed by grass mowing and repair until the field is in a position to be handed back for general public use.

Clearly we are not as advanced as we'd hoped to have been with these projects, but we're working as hard as possible to get them completed ASAP. Some unfortunate inconvenience yes, more affected than others, but in the end Hagley will be better for these works in many ways for generations to come.

Outdoor Gym equipment

I am pleased to report the installation of the outdoor gym equipment. Another example of improving amenities in Hagley.

Village Ladies

Our meeting on 9th October will be an informal evening when we met our new groups and we shall have the chance to plan what we want to do within the group in the forthcoming year. Our group system, where we are in a smaller group, has proved extremely popular over the years as it gives new members a chance to get to know a few people in a homely situation. Groups plan all manner of things to do together from coffee evening, theatre trips, walks, cinema trips, in fact anything they all enjoy.

Following this on 23 October we have an Avon Cosmetics evening presented by Raj, a demonstration with gifts to purchase with Christmas in mind. It should be a lovely relaxing evening!

Looking even further ahead to 13th November, when Ellie Taggart, an author and television personality, will be coming to tell us the story of her father Sven's wartime experiences. "Another Man's Shoes" is a gripping first-hand account of a Norwegian scientist's escape from German custody during the Second World War after his arrest for spying. Written just after the war, Sven Somme vividly describes his 200-mile trek across the mountains, pursued by German soldiers, in a bid to reach Sweden and freedom in 1944. This should be a most interesting evening, so we do hope you will join us.

She may have books for sale!

All these events are at St Saviour's Church Hall and start at 8 pm. Visitors are always welcome.

VILLAGE INFORMATION

Hagley Country Dancers

We are under way for the Autumn term and on Monday afternoons Hagley Free Church Hall echoes to the sounds of Fairfield Fancy, The Queen's Jig and The Yorkshire Square Eight as the Hagley Country Dancers return from their summer break.

One of our favourite dances, perhaps appropriate to this time of year, is "The Chestnut", with its intriguing alternative title of "Dove's Figary". The dance is listed in John Playford's collection of 1651 and, according to the website of Folk Tune Finder, the title has its origin in a ballad written in 1600. At that time, apparently, in the songs of harvest festivals and wassails, the chestnut had feminine symbolism and this particular ballad was about a certain Mr. Dove and his "figary" or "vagary" with women. Plus ça change.....

However, there is no figary, or vagary at the Hagley Country dancers, where new members are always made welcome and there is always plenty of helpful advice available for anyone taking the plunge into what may be a completely different experience.

There is plenty of parking via Chapel Street - no charge for a first visit, subsequently the cost is £2 per person.

For more information, ring June Waterhouse, 01562 700369

Hagley Theatre Group

The Youth Section is rehearsing hard for their production of the comedy musical 'Half a Sixpence,' to be performed on the 10th-13th October 2018 at the Community Centre. They are determined to provide the quality of production achieved in previous years' successes including Les Miserables, Grease, Into the Woods and Sister Act.

The story centres around Arthur Kipps who lives and works with other apprentices in a drapers shop. After learning that he is inheriting a fortune, Arthur tries to join the upper class and gets engaged to the wealthy Helen Walsingham. However Arthur soon realises that his true love is his childhood sweetheart, Ann.

If you would like tickets for this show (£10 (£8 concessions)) contact us on 07907 457217 or email hagleytheatregroup@gmail.com or visit Paddock Butchers. We are also on Instagram and Facebook (both;@hagleytheatregroup).

Hagley Neighbourhood Watch

A public meeting has been arranged with the Hagley and Rubery Policing Team for the 17 October starting at 7pm in the Hagley Free Church Hall. All welcome.

The event will be advertised as widely as possible. The previous similar meeting was very well attended and I'm hoping that we will have the same fantastic support. I intend to allow the Policing team a period to update the meeting on recent events, then there will be a short period to advertise 'smart water' followed by a Question and Answer session.

One incident received wide publicity and showed the benefit of having property security installed. The incident happened late September when a 'would be' burglar's attempted break in was foiled by the properties intruder security system.

Another property protection measure is 'Smart Water' which is a police initiative and a clever invisible liquid that when applied to valuables can't be seen by the naked eye but under ultra violet light can be linked back to the owner.

The watch is looking to support this initiative across Hagley. Details to follow

Steve Colella and Roger Seabury Joint Watch Co-ordinators.

HAGLEY ART CLUB

ART CLUB

At our Meeting on Friday, 13th October, Bridget MacDonald, visiting Artist, is coming to give the Appraisal of members' work. Our Appraisal Evening takes place annually, to help members in readiness for our Annual Exhibition which is held the following month, in November. An interesting Evening when we have the opportunity to view paintings members have been working on during the year.

We have no Meeting in November as we have changed the date of our Annual Exhibition this year to start on that date.

Our Exhibition, which takes place in the Community Centre, opens on Friday evening, 9th November, at 7pm. The Exhibition is open on Saturday, 10th November, and Sunday, 11th November, 10am to 4pm. There will be framed and unframed pictures for sale, also cards, crafts and jewellery.

Do come and look round, you may find some nice Christmas presents.

BROMSGROVE DISTRICT COUNCIL UPDATE

We can confirm that there was once again great news for Hagley with the approval of the New Homes Bonus Bids for Haybridge High School's sports pavilion and the Guides' tents bids.

This adds to previous years successful bids and makes Hagley one of the highest recipients of grants across Bromsgrove District. Congratulations and thank you to those who applied.

As a reminder for future bids the process opens again 2019/20; get your thinking caps on and start building your case. Contact your relevant District Ward Councillor for further support and advice, we're here to help.

BDC's planners will be carrying out a series of public consultations in respect of its planning strategy. Please watch for further details. We can also confirm that the Hagley Neighbourhood Plan team (of which Steve is its Chairman) will also begin its public consultation process with a series of public events and they will be circulating information in the near future.

The Hagley Neighbourhood Plan will be based on local evidence into aspects such as housing, traffic and travel, environment and sustainability; building heavily on and public stakeholder input.

Councillors Colella (Hagley West Independent) and Jenkins (Hagley East Independent) Bromsgrove District Council

Hagley String Orchestra

We began our Autumn Term on Tuesday 04 September, so we've already been playing our new repertoire for over a month and thoroughly enjoying the mixture of JS Bach, Mozart and Sibelius. Our greatest challenge is Dvořák's Quintet for 2 violins, viola, cello and double bass; wonderful music but the only instrument to avoid the considerable technical problems is the D.B.! Although this is really for solo instruments, we're having a go as a smallish group.

We are particularly interested in an unusual arrangement of Haydn's 'London' Symphony. After the death in 1790 of his employer, Count Esterházy, Haydn retires with a pension, and meets in Vienna the impresario Salomon who invites him to London. Thus, the following year and aged 59, Haydn has a triumphant time in London with many successful concerts and an honorary Doctorate of Music degree from Oxford University. Whilst on his two visits to the UK, Haydn composed his last twelve symphonies, including the 'Surprise', 'Drumroll', 'Clock', 'Military', and, in 1795, the 'London'. Salomon gained permission to publish arrangements of these symphonies, initially for piano solo, and then for string quintet with flute, and it is this we are playing with Anne Wilson as our flautist.

The more the merrier! Please contact Haydn Thomas for information on how to join us (01562 885 252; sanhay50@gmail.com)

HAGLEY W.I.

August does seem a long time ago when we enjoyed a Summer Tea Party and an amazing evening at Avoncroft – a real spectacle of light and wonderfully varied music with the buildings illuminated at dusk. Also over the summer with other WIs in the area, we went on Group Walks – a shorter one around Pedmore and a more challenging one around Norton – before meeting together for a very welcome supper.

At our meeting on Monday 8 October, Caroline Hall is going to speak to us about Women and the First World War. Also in October, at the Worcestershire WI Annual Meeting at Malvern, there is a Competition – Glamour and Glitz – with classes in crafts, cookery, floral art, photography and art which we will be entering. At the following meeting on Monday 12 November, Michael Jones' talk is on Mistletoe, which will be an interesting lead up to Christmas.

The WI is a great opportunity to make new friends or connect with existing ones in a friendly environment – learn new skills and listen to interesting talks. We go out for informal Friday Lunches at restaurants and pubs locally and we also have a craft group. Here members can work on their own crafts, or knit or sew clothes and blankets for local hospitals and homes.

We are a friendly group and are always happy to welcome visitors and new members. We have a varied programme and meet on the second Monday of the month at 2.00 pm in the Community Centre. We look forward to seeing you! And if you would like further information, do contact me – 01384 371999.

Rosie Wynne

Hagley Gardeners' Club

At a time when many of our own gardens were baked and brown, the luxuriance of the NGS gardens we saw at Offenham in the Vale of Evesham was a joy.

The monthly meeting on 24th October will hear a talk by Duncan Coombs entitled "Winter Colour and Interest in the Garden". Duncan is an RHS advisor who lectures in plant identification at Pershore College and writes regularly about gardening.

On 28th November garden photographer Adrian James will talk about seasonal changes at the beautiful Bodenham arboretum - an oasis of calm in a protected valley near Wolverley. Lakes and pools set off the extensive mature woodland, which is particularly good-looking in the autumn.

Our monthly meetings are at St Saviour's Hall, 7.30pm for 8 pm, normally on the fourth Wednesday of the month.

VILLAGE INFORMATION

Hagley Historical and Field Society

Our next meeting at St Saviour's Church Hall is on Tuesday 2nd October at 8.00pm when we will have a very short Annual General Meeting followed by a presentation by Jo Roche entitled "Pioneers in Petticoats - The Early History of Kidderminster High School for Girls".

Kidderminster High School opened on the Chester Road South site in 1912 and ceased to exist as a separate entity in July 1977 when it was amalgamated with King Charles 1st School and Queen Elizabeth 1st Grammar School (Hartlebury), becoming a comprehensive school.

This is a story of two second cousins, Miss Catherine Bennett and Miss Elizabeth Frances Ridley and their contribution to education for girls in Kidderminster. It was in an era when academic education had to be paid for. For girls, this was regarded as unfitting and unnecessary and only intended to provide a social education in preparation for marriage. All this was about to change.

Visitors are most welcome at all our events – see hhfs.org.uk for details and contacts.

St. John's The Joy of Peace

Hand & Tower
Bellringers

Image 100 years ago, the ravages of the Great War had killed hundreds of thousands across the country, as witnessed by War Memorials in almost every village in the country. Some families had the younger generation ripped out of their hearts. A massive social change as yet unseen was upon the whole nation. No radio, no TV. Word of mouth and the printed media was the only form of communication. Into this the bell-ringers, those who were left, rose up into their towers to proclaim peace.

This is what we want to remember on 11th November 2018. Yes, there will be the national Remembrance at the Cenotaph at 11am. At St. John's we will ring the bells half muffled. A reminder of the national grief.

The afternoon of 11th November will be different. The bell tower at St. John's will be open for everyone to come and make some noise. Try to image the feeling of relief with the advent of peace.

Refreshments will be available in the church. Younger children will be most welcome to use the resources there to play with. Extra car parking will be available.

VILLAGE INFORMATION

HAGLEY ROTARY CLUB CAN WE HELP YOU?

The Rotary Club of Hagley have had a busy summer in particular a welcome BBQ to the Children from Chernobyl who enjoyed well cooked food at the gardens of Hassan and Ann Paraiso .

The Rotary Club extended an invitation to the Rotarians partners on the 6th August to meet and eat with 2 member representatives of the Chernobyl children. Dressed in outfits they had selected themselves (a rare event in their life) Ksenia and Arina thanked the club members for their hospitality and friendship in a speech given in credible English for 12 year olds. The harshness of their life in an area beaten by successive wars and invasions culminating in the nuclear disaster with which the name Chernobyl is most recognized, was both an enjoyable and moving experience.

Also during the summer Rotarian Ann Paraiso provided a brilliant and well-presented talk during with much food for thought for her fellow Rotarians. As a Psychologist in training, Ann outlined the difficulties in the new world of technology for the young and vulnerable. Appreciating the demands on the younger mind by freeing the intellect with mobile phones, there is a dark side of the media age in which paranoia of the teenage years replaces the playground bullies on a 24/7 cycle. Match this with heavy demands on the NHS for other treatments and medicine, we have major shortage of social mental health support creating a problem in the making as teenagers and vulnerable people, fearing their phone texts, resort to self-harm and suicide to extract themselves from mental harm with cries for help

We maintain an active social calendar in addition to a well-informed weekly meeting. The Rotary Club of Hagley meets at 7pm for 7.30pm on Monday evenings at Hogarth's Stone Manor Hotel Bromsgrove Rd, Kidderminster DY10 4PJ and welcomes new guests and prospective members so please phone Martin Freckelton on 01562 700 391 or Dave Santus on 01562 886 529 who would be delighted to tell you more about our Rotary Club and its activities.
